

The Dissertation Committee for Full Official Name certifies that this is the approved version of the following dissertation:

Title of Dissertation or Treatise Centered
And Double-Spaced

Committee:

Supervisor Name, Supervisor

Member's Name

Member's Name

Member's Name

Member's Name

Title of Dissertation or Treatise Centered
And Double-Spaced

by

Full Official Name, B.A., M.A.

Dissertation

Presented to the Faculty of the Graduate School of the University of Texas at Austin
in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of

Doctor of Philosophy

The University of Texas at Austin

May 2017

I dedicate this to my water bottle, Prince Charles.

Acknowledgments

Many thanks to Linus, Donald, Leslie, and so many others; you know who you are.

Title of Dissertation or Treatise Centered
And Double-Spaced

by

Full Official Name, Ph.D.

The University of Texas at Austin, 2017

Supervisor: Supervisor Name

Indent and begin abstract here. It should be a concise statement of the nature and content of the ETD. The text must be either double-spaced or 1.5-spaced. Abstracts should be limited to 350 words.

Table of Contents

1 Introduction	1
1.1 A Section.....	1
2 Methodology	2
2.1 Methodological issues in the current literature: Inherent assumptions, impossible biases, and intellectual conundrums	2
2.1.1 Conclusions	2
Bibliography	3
Vita	4

Chapter 1

Introduction

Your ETD must be correct in spelling and punctuation and presented in a consistent, structured format. A single, legible font must be used throughout, the only exceptions being in tables, figures, graphs, appendices, and supplemental files. Headings may be bolded and no more than 2 points larger than the rest of the text. The font size should be sufficient for the average person to read the document on a computer monitor without difficulty (12-pt is recommended.) Accuracy and consistency in presentation and form make your ETD a usable research tool for other readers.

1.1 A Section

This is the first line of the first section of the first chapter, but not the first line of the first chapter, which belongs to no section.

Chapter 2

Methodology

This is the first line of Chapter 2, which I am calling “Methodology.” It consists of this paragraph, and later, Section 2.1, which leads with a long-winded header, but quickly devolves into shallow platitudes.

2.1 Methodological issues in the current literature: Inherent assumptions, impossible biases, and intellectual conundrums

As you can see, there’s a lot going on in this section.

2.1.1 Conclusions

Nearing the end, and thence the bibliography, we have our first citation: Knuth (1996) — a T_EX reference, of course.

Bibliography

Donald Ervin Knuth. The TeXbook. AMS and Addison-Wesley, 1996. ISBN 0-201-13447-0. URL <https://www-cs-faculty.stanford.edu/~knuth/abcde.html>.

Vita

Full Official Name was born in Austin, Texas. After completing their work and graduating from Austin High School, they went to college somewhere, and graduated, but then decided two graduations weren't enough. After that, they entered the Graduate School at the University of Texas at Austin.

Address: shortname@utexas.edu
 123 Main St.
 Austin, Texas 78712

This dissertation was typed by the author.